

Two-Hand Manual Alphabet

Communicating through touch

The Deafblind person holds out their hand, palm flat, facing up. The person communicating with them touches the person's hand in specific places for each letter to spell the words. Also, numbers can be traced in palm.

ASL Fingerspelling Alphabet

